

Postscripts

Vol. 7, No. 11

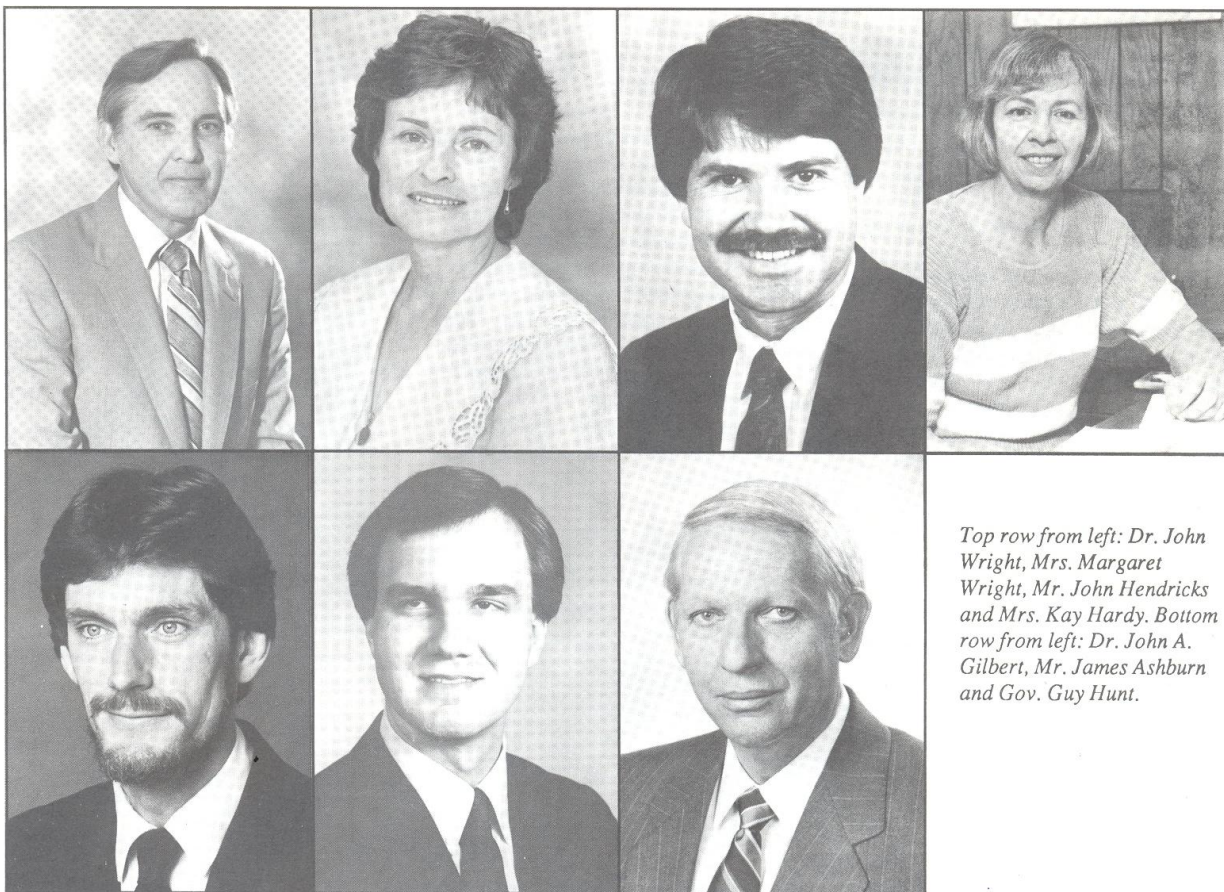

June 13, 1988

1988 UAH AWARDS OF EXCELLENCE

The UAH Alumni Association has announced the recipients for the 1988 "Awards of Excellence." A Decade of Excellence award was presented to Dr. John Wright, while Mrs. Margaret Wright received the Silver Bowl award. Outstanding Alumnus of the Year, was presented to John Hendricks, founder of The Discovery Channel and a 1974 graduate from UAH's College of Liberal Arts; Gov. Guy Hunt received the Outstanding Leadership in Government award; the Distinguished Faculty Award was presented to Dr. John A. Gilbert, Professor, Mechanical Engineering; Kay Hardy, Assistant to the President, received the Staff Appreciation Award; and the Outstanding Student Scholar award was presented to James Ashburn, Graduate Research Assistant in Physics, working on his doctorate, and assisted in the superconductivity breakthrough at UAH.

Top row from left: Dr. John Wright, Mrs. Margaret Wright, Mr. John Hendricks and Mrs. Kay Hardy. Bottom row from left: Dr. John A. Gilbert, Mr. James Ashburn and Gov. Guy Hunt.